STAMFORD WOMAN was telling about a friend, a sorrowing widow, having a memorial erected in memory of her late husband, and had the following inscription carved upon it: "Goodbye, Henry, my light has gone out."

Three months later when she remarried some wit added to the inscription: "But I have struck another match."

BOLVEIG PAULSON is responsible for the little dog below entitled "Dog Friends":

As I go whistling down the street I have so many friends to greet, Perhaps they'd be just dogs to you— To me they're friends and all true blue.

A happy bark, a friendly tail, Straightforward eyes to greet my hail, Each one all eagerness to please, I'm proud to have such friends as these.

I think it's sad all men don't know The qualities that dogs can show, But as for me, my day's more sweet Because I have such friends to greet.

James Shelley Wins Trustee Post Saturday In Vote at McCaulley

James Shelley defeated incumbent J. S. Faught for the one spot on the McCaulley School District board of trustees in light voting held at McCaulley Saturday. Shelley received 28 votes to 14 for Faught.

Two other incumbents, Jerry Maberry and E. T. Gibson were reelected. Maberry received 30 votes and Gibson 20.

Three School Trustees Reelected Saturday In Poor Vote Show

Three members of the Hamlin Independent School District board of trustees were reelected Saturday in voting that created very little interest in the 258-square-mile district in an election conducted at the high school building. Fifty-eight votes were cast during the day-long balloting.

No opposition to the three trustees standing for reelection on the ballot was registered.

Eddie Jay received 52 votes, Dr. M. L. Smith tallied 57 and Bill Harbert received 58. They will serve for three years.

Hold-over trustees are Fred B. Moore Jr., Richard Young, W. C. Eoff and Revis Robertson.

New Herald Publisher and Wife Have Background of Experience in Business

With the sale last week of The Hamlin Herald to new owners, the management and operation of the paper will be new to the community. Issues during April, however, are being edited by Willard Jones, former publisher.

Bob Craig, who will be editor and publisher of The Herald, has been associated with his father, Roy M. Craig at The Stamford American since November, 1951.

The Hamlin Herald will be published by the Pied Piper Publishing Company, with Roy Craig, Bob Craig and R. E. (Bob) Kennedy each being equal partners.

Bob Craig has announced this week that his wife, Barbara, will be associate and society editor. Both Craig and his wife will assume editorial duties May 1.

During the past year Mrs. Craig has served as correspondent for The Abilene Reporter-News and The Wichita Falls Record-News. Craig has been sports correspondent for area daily papers for the past three years. He also covered sports for The American this past year.

The couple has been active in both church and civic activities while in Stamford. Craig is past president of the Stamford Exchange Club and Christian Men's Fellowship of Central Christian Church, where they are members.

Lily Sale Saturday To Climax Drive By Two Sororities

Good response to the door-to-door sale of Easter seals Tuesday evening between 6:00 and 8:00 o'clock is reported by Mrs. John C. Bryant, drive chairman for the two Beta Sigma sororities, Xi Gamma Pi and Beta Theta.

Then on Saturday, April 9, an Easter lily sale will be conducted downtown by members of the two women's sororities. A booth will be maintained from 9:00 a. m. till 5:00 p. m. near the bank.

Funds from the Easter seal and lily sales campaign go to support the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene. The center serves the entire West Texas area by providing rehabilitation services for all handicapped regardless of race, creed or color without charge. The center is supported by donations alone and has never received any government aid.

Budget of the rehabilitation center this year is $75,000. The center is affiliated with the Texas Society for Crippled Children and the National Society for Crippled Children. Seventy-seven per cent of the funds stay in West Texas, with 12.9 per cent staying in Texas to assist unorganized areas; 10.3 per cent goes to the national crippled children program, with two per cent of this 10 per cent being used in a broad research program for crippled children and adults.

The Easter seal organization is the only organization for crippled children and adults which treats all physical handicaps, either incurred at birth, through accidents or by disease.

Tate May of Hamlin is a director of the Abilene center.

Dr. Gordon Bennett Will Speak at P-TA

Dr. Gordon Bennett, president of McMurtry College at Abilene, former superintendent of Hamlin schools and business man here, will be speaker for the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association this (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Junior High School auditorium.

For Second Sunday Singing at Hanna Set

Jones County second Sunday singing will meet at Hanna Baptist Church, on the Hamlin-Anson highway, Sunday, announces Felix Thompson of Anson, president.

REELECTED AS TRUSTEES of the Hamlin Independent School District in an election last Saturday that reflected little interest by citizens generally were (left to right): Fred B. Moore Jr., Eddie Jay and Bill Harbert. They were not opposed for reelection. Only 58 votes were cast out of a possible of more than 1,000 in the school district.

John Howard Jr. And Joe Hudspeth Win Uncontested

After only negligible voting interest manifested in last Saturday's school trustee election, citizens of the City of Hamlin perked up and polled 230 votes in the city election Tuesday that named a mayor and five councilmen.

Although it was a clean slate for officers on the city governing body, three of those elected had been members of the preceding City Council.

John V. Howard Jr., who last month resigned as councilman to run for the office of mayor being relinquished by L. H. McBride, was unopposed, and received 222 votes.

Joe Hudspeth, who had just completed his first two-year term as a councilman, was running for the one-year unexpired term of John V. Howard Jr. He polled 228 votes.

Of the six candidates running for the four remaining places on the City Council, elected were John D. Ferguson, who tallied 206 votes; James D. Josey, who polled 186; C. L. Howard, who received 176 votes; and George E. Campbell, who got 156.

Hollis W. Madden tallied 150 votes, and Herbert Hopper polled 37 tallies.

Since the rotation of electing three members of the City Council each year had gotten out of order, it was decreed by a recent meeting of the City Council that of the four councilmen elected in the open races, the one receiving the higher number of votes would serve two years with the mayor. Hence, Mayor Howard, Ferguson and Josey will serve for two years. Hudspeth (who sought only the one-year term), C. L. Howard and Campbell will serve one year.

ARE WE LIVING IN AN AGE OF SHODDY EFFORT?

"This was the era, domestically, when everything was half done; the era, in foreign affairs, when nothing was done right because nobody seemed to care enough to exercise the foresight and take the pains to see that it was done right. This was the time when the job on the car was always half finished, the suit came back from the cleaners half dirty, the yard work was overpriced and underdone, the bright new gadget broke down a week after you got it home, the prices climbed higher and higher as the quality got less and less, and the old fashioned rule of a fair bargain for a fair price was indeed old fashioned, for it never applied to anything. The great age of shoddy came upon America after the war, and 'everybody wants his' became the guiding principle for far too many."

Thus Allen Drury describes the post-war era in his remarkable novel, "Advise and Consent," a work in which he uses the vehicle of fiction to present an extraordinarily revealing picture of Washington's political, diplomatic and social worlds.

Accuracy of his indictment is undeniable. Yet, in the immediate post-war years, it was possible to find seemingly valid excuses. The relaxation of war tensions resulted, naturally enough, in emotional and financial excesses. An attitude of "live for today and never mind tomorrow" became general. On the purely material side, the lifting of war-time restrictions on industrial production created an eager and apparently insatiable market for almost anything, no matter how poor the quality or exorbitant the price.

Generous People

I understand the painter Rothenstein's saying, "It is in the atmosphere of poetry and among men of large vision and magnanimous natures that I have been most happy and comfortable."

How delightful is the company of generous people, who overlook trifles and keep their minds instinctively fixed on whatever is good and positive in the world about them. People of small caliber are always carping. They are bent on showing their own superiority, their knowledge or their prowess or good breeding. But magnanimous people have no rivalry, they have no jealousy, they have no reserves, and they lead on the true and the solid wherever they find it. And what is more, they find it everywhere.—Van Wyck Brooks.

Nuggets of Thought

Sincerity is more successful than genius or talent.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Sincerity, a deep, genuine, heart-felt sincerity is a trait of true and noble manhood.—Lawrence Sterne.

The whole faculties of man must be exerted in order to call forth noble energies, and he who is not earnestly sincere lives in but half his being, self-mutilated, self-paralyzed.—Coleridge.

Sincerity is to speak as we think, to do as we pretend and profess, to perform what we promise, and really to be what we would seem and appear to be.—John Tillotson.

The sincere alone can recognize sincerity.—Carlyle.

Sincerity is impossible unless it pervades the whole being, and the pretense of it saps the very foundation of character.—James Russell Lowell.

So much to do, so little done.—Cecil Rhodes.

Back of ninety-nine out of one hundred assertions that a thing cannot be done is nothing but unwillingness to do it.—William Feather.

Reason, too late perhaps, may convince you of the folly of mispending time.—George Washington.

Had this sorry situation spent itself in a reasonable time there would have been small cause for worry. But who can honestly deny that the dark picture Mr. Drury paints is still—in the fundamentals, not in the details—the picture that obtains in this country?

The problem, of course, is a moral problem. The Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, Rev. Richard Emrich, speaks for churchmen of all the denominations when he says: "Everywhere I travel I hear arguments, but I never hear a moral argument, with someone saying, 'This is wrong, or unjust, or dishonest, and I will have nothing to do with it.' I think we are floundering as a people."

And there lies the tragedy. For the basic strength of any nation is its moral strength. All the weapons, all the productive capacity, all the money on earth, cannot save a people from ultimate destruction if their moral fiber decays, their national character rots, and they sink into an abyss of material cynicism, indifference, selfishness, avarice and greed.

There is a bright side. It is found in the fact that more and more people, in public and private discussion, are talking about the problem, thinking about it, worrying about it. An astute observer of the American scene observed that the recent television mess, for example, may prove to be of enormous benefit—by awakening the American people to the extent and character of immoral decay, and removing the blinders from their eyes. The American people have been awakened to many kinds of dangers in the past, and have met them with wrath, with courage and with understanding.

What a Bug!

Charles Robert Darwin, the great scientist, was invited one day to a friend's house. Soon after his arrival, two small boys rushed into the room and asked Mr. Darwin if he could tell them the name of the creature they held in their hands.

Now the "creature" was one they had carefully put together to fool Mr. Darwin. They had stuck the wings of a dead bluebottle fly into the body of a butterfly, and added parts of a grasshopper, daddy long-legs and a black beetle.

Mr. Darwin eyed the thing, and looked at the boys. "Did the creature hum very much when you caught it?" he asked solemnly.

"Why, yes, I think it hummed," answered one of the boys.

"Then," replied the great scientist, "it's a hum-bug."

Editorial of the Week

RIGHT ZIGGISTS IN CHINA

Clearly Red China is having plentiful trouble with her 27,000 communes—those anti-hill organizations that starve the people and rob them of any individualism.

From official Pieping sources, it is confirmed that a mass purge is on—this time not among the higher-ups alone. From the bottom upward, "right opportunists" are being weeded out. What this will mean in death and prison punishments can scarcely be imagined. In the early 1950s millions lost their lives for daring to oppose Communist oppression measures. Most of these were small property owners or rich landlords.

But now it is the peasants apparently who are not making "the great leap forward," not advancing production and industrialization as Peiping had expected. It used to be a Chinese superstition that to get away from evil spirits it was best to zig and zag in flight. Hence, no leap forward today, rather a pronounced zig—to the right. But the vilest of all spirits are at their heels.—The Fort Worth Press.

Moore Jr. as trustees. Only 44 votes were cast Tuesday in the city election that renamed A. Spenser and elected Delma Sheburne to the City Council.

Census Gets Underway in Section as Part of Major Job Done Every 10 Years

The 1960 census of population and housing, the nation's eighteenth decennial nose count, got underway Friday morning, April 1, with 160,000 census takers starting their rounds, which will take them to every dwelling unit in the United States.

In covering the 3,500,000 square miles of land area of the 50 states, the census takers will travel an estimated combined distance of more than 1,000 times around the world or approximately 28,000,000 miles.

District Supervisor Max V. Mossnolder points out that residents of this area can speed up the big count by having their advance report forms filled out and ready for the census takers. This action will save time for both the householder and the census taker, the census official said.

Advance report forms were distributed to local households prior to the start of the house-to-house canvass. It contains the seven population and six housing questions which are asked of all persons. The advance report form gives the family a chance to advance the information about each member in advance of the census taker's visit. Its use is expected to speed up the field canvass and provide more accurate statistics.

At every fourth household the census taker will seek the answers to additional questions covering population and housing characteristics which are being asked of a 25 per cent sample of the population.

The district supervisor emphasized that all information about individuals and their homes furnished to the Census Bureau is held in absolute confidence under federal law. It is used only to provide summary figures such as totals, averages and percentages. The information about individuals cannot be furnished to anyone other than sworn census employees and thus cannot be used for investigation, taxation or regulation.

Also concerning Hamlin East Cemetery is another project of the post which calls for setting out 400 Arizona cypress trees along the cemetery borders to trees are on order and delivery is expected shortly.

One permanent service of the wheel-chairs and hospital beds to organization is the lending of those with need for such items. No charge is made for this service, which is available to anyone in the community.

The post maintains an up-to-date list of blood types of all members, which is accessible to Hamlin Memorial Hospital in cases where blood donors are needed.

A March of Dimes dance was conducted by the Ladies' Auxiliary at the post during the recent drive, with all proceeds going into the local March of Dimes fund.

The post, which was chartered in 1946, is quartered southeast of Hamlin. Its buildings, ground and equipment are valued at $10,000, according to Clyde Huff, post quartermaster.

TEXAS INDUSTRIAL WEEK April 1-7

Texas Industry and Reddy Kilowatt are old friends. The West Texas Utilities Company, itself a growing West Texas industry, is starting the "Soaring Sixties" with construction of new power plants, transmission and distribution lines, and other facilities to provide more and more power to spark the industrial development of West Texas.

Industry in West Texas means more people, more jobs, and more payrolls, which mean more business and a better living for all of us. West Texas Utilities is building ahead to provide the power for a growing industrial West Texas.

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN...

Your electric service—the more you use it, the bigger the bargain—as you put more and more electricity to work in your home, you actually pay less per kilowatt hour.

While today, you are getting more work saving, time saving conveniences out of your electric service than before, your bill is likely to be higher than it used to be. But, remember while you are using so much more electric service, the cost per kilowatt hour is actually 18% less than it was in 1950.

Jones County Tops Area Counties in Farm-to-Market Roads in Recent Years

Sharing heavily in construction of farm-to-market roads during the past several years, Jones County had the largest appropriation for these roads of the 21 counties of Central West Texas, according to tabulations of figures just released from Austin by the Texas Highway Department.

While expenditures were not among the top ranking counties of the state, the $2,822,467 total expenditure for the roads since 1946 was top among area counties. Eastland, with $2,276,268, was second in the 21-county region.

The figures show that a few counties have obtained far larger shares of this construction than others under the formulas set up in the law for allocating the funds, or because of their readiness to provide the right-of-way for the roads when other counties failed to clear the way for rural road construction.

The figures cover only construction. Maintenance of the state-built farm-to-market roads comes out of the regular state highway fund, which gets a share of the gasoline sales tax and a share of the truck and car license fees.

Area counties and their total farm-to-market road construction since 1946 follow:

County	Total
Brown	$1,838,830
Callahan	1,299,481
Coke	1,034,087
Coleman	1,735,018
Eastland	2,276,268

A. B. Counts, Long Time Carpenter, Passes Tuesday

Alvin Buchanan Counts, 70-year-old Hamlin carpenter for quarter of a century, succumbed at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family home, 936 South Central Avenue, after a two-year illness.

Born June 21, 1889, in Tennessee, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Counts. Coming to Texas with his family as a lad, he settled in Delta County, where on September 8, 1912, he married the former Dora Rich. The couple moved to Hamlin in 1936, where he had followed the carpenter trade. He was a member of the Foursquare Gospel Church.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Foursquare Gospel Church. Officiating were Rev. Don McGinnish, pastor, and Rev. Carl Pool of San Angelo, former pastor of the local church.

Interment was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were C. W. Lovell, Prentiss Holland, C. W. Durham, Tom Nall, Bill Davis and Thurston Havins.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Dora Counts of Hamlin; two sons, J. T. Counts of Fort Hood and Rev. Weldon Counts of Balingier; one daughter, Mrs. Maurine Smith of Hamlin; one brother, Jim Counts of Munday; and three grandchildren.

Keith C. Wheatley, Candidate for State Representative, Answers Lobbyists

Keith C. Wheatley, candidate for State Representative from the 85th Representative District, recently was listed among candidates being opposed by a Dallas lobbyist in the forthcoming election. Wheatley this week makes the following statement to voters of Jones, Stonewall, Dickens and King Counties, which comprise the 85th District:

Some of you have recently received from a Dallas lobbyist a letter opposing my candidacy for the Legislature on the basis that I am a liberal. I believe that you will be interested to know why this opposition arises in Dallas County, some 200 miles east of our district.

Your last Legislature struggled through seven months of discord seeking without success the solution to this state's financial problems. My opponent's record shows that during this period he voted against the interest and wishes of the people of this district. He voted for a general sales tax; he voted against the interest of the REA; he voted against tax relief for elderly citizens of our state; but he voted for a pay increase for himself. This record explains the stand of my opponent, who is now endorsed by statewide distribution of letters seeking support for him over the signature of the Dallas lobbyist.

You have my pledge to oppose the general and state income tax. You have my pledge to support the REA, which means so much to the rural citizens of this district.

You have my pledge to support the needs of our elderly citizens.

You have my pledge to vote against an increase in pay for the members of the Legislature while this state's finances are in the "red" and while many obligations exist to our schools, our elderly citizens and other worthy programs.

You have my pledge to seek economy in government operations which are presently costly and duplicative in this state looking toward a reduction of the all-over state's expenditures for government to make available more money for the state's needs in other fields.

You have my pledge to oppose, not to incur the favor of the Dallas lobbyist or lobbyists from any other area of the state.

You have my pledge that I shall ask your opinion on all matters before I act or vote. In other words, I shall be your representative if elected.

I am neither a conservative nor am I a liberal in that I fit the pattern of any lobbyist's opinion of my views. I expect to determine the wishes of the people and to vote as their representative without any other label than honest representation of this area's interests. I sincerely solicit your vote and assistance in my campaign.

Parker May Is on Mission to Africa For Government

Parker May, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. P. May, Hamlin pioneer, and brother of President Tate May of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank, is on a vital mission for the world relations division of the State Department to countries of the Near East and Africa.

May has made his home near Washington for several years. He is officially connected with the United States Information Service, which primarily has as its purpose giving true pictures of the U. S. and its world relations of friendliness and assistance to other countries of the world.

Parker left New York City on March 18 for Rome, Athens, Ankara, Beirut, Cairo, Khartoum, Kampala (Uganda). He is due to arrive back home the middle of April. He is representing the service at cultural affairs officers' conference in Beirut and Kampala.

In a letter to his brother, Tate May, Parker declared that he would be visiting a part of the world new to him. He hoped to find a little time to sight-see during his official mission, he said.

A later letter to the Mays here, written from Rome, declared that the Italian capital was only 12 hours by jet from Dallas. His latest letter said in part: "I have been by the building where Paul was held prisoner; through the Roman forum, colosseum, etc.; called at St. Peter's Church, and saw Pope John at noon."

Lions Chided for Unconcern Shown In Area Elections

Members and guests of Hamlin Lions Club were chided about the apathy and unconcern about the privilege of voting being manifested by people of today, when Orville D. Roland, manager of the Hamlin Board of Community Development spoke briefly at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the civic group at the oil mill guest house.

Roland pointed to the fact that only 58 votes were cast in Saturday's school trustee election, whereas probably more than 1,000 were eligible to participate. He said more than 800 were eligible to vote in Tuesday's city election, with 739 exemptions and poll taxes having been registered, besides the "overs."

Secretary Ed Croan reported that Hamlin Lions Club is on the top of the list in the zone contest, and well up in the ratings of clubs in District 27-2. Other clubs in this zone are Breckenridge, Albany, Anson, Mineral Wells and Stamford.

President Donley Williams and Vice President George E. Campbell attended the zone meeting of club representatives last Tuesday evening at Stamford.

Guests at the Tuesday luncheon were J. W. Simpson, principal of Stamford High School; and Gene Westmoreland, Hamlin car dealer.

Plans Shaping for Big 4-H Share-the-Fun Festival Tuesday Eve

Plans are going forward for an hilarious time by youngsters of the county when the Jones County 4-H Club share-the-fun festival is staged Tuesday evening, April 12, in the grade school gymnasium at Anson, according to an announcement this week by County Extension Agents Mary Y. Newberry and Kirby Clayton. Festivities get underway at 7:30 p. m.

There will be an act from each of the 18 4-H Clubs in the county. First place act will compete in the district 4-H share-the-fun festival in Wichita Falls May 7.

Judges for the event will be Mr. and Mrs. Curly Hays and Ted Dudley of West Texas Utilities Company.

The public is invited to attend the Tuesday evening program.

Baptists of Area to Attend Anson Session

Several from Baptist churches of the Hamlin territory are slated to attend a Bible School clinic for workers and leaders next Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church in Anson, according to Rev. T. M. Harrell, pastor of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church in Hamlin, chairman for Bible Schools of the Jones County Baptist Association.

County and regional leaders of the denomination will be featured on the program, Harrell declares.

Average Motorist Has Spotty Traffic Record

Average motorist of the country has a spotty record, according to statistics assembled by the American Automobile Association and made public in Washington.

Admittedly, thousands of drivers go for years without traffic law violations or accidents, but the association said the total of driving black marks averages out like this:

An accident every 10 years, a speeding ticket every 15 years, a parking ticket every 2.8 years, and a moving traffic violation every 3.7 years.

In achieving his record, the AAA estimated, the average motorist will go 500,000 miles in a lifetime of driving.

HE'S REALLY GONE.
A beatnik queried his friend, "What kind of a guy is George?"
"No, man, he's from Squaresville. The other night the lights went out in his girl's house, and he spent the rest of the evening tinkering with the fuses."

It's unfortunate that the symptoms of fatigue and of laziness are practically identical.

Lampshade Clinic For County Women Scheduled April 11-12

A lampshade workshop preliminary meeting was held Tuesday by Jones County Home Demonstration Agent Mary Y. Newberry in her office for leaders representing six Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs interested in learning how to cover lampshades.

Equipment needed for the workshop, the cover needed for both the cover and the lining, and how to measure for the amount of fabric needed were discussed.

Shades to be covered or recovered must be the metal frames with at least six ribs connecting the top and bottom rims, the agent informed the women. The heavier type frames with three-eighths-inch band instead of a wire at the bottom is more desirable because it allows for more pulling of the cover and lining.

Monday and Tuesday, April 11 and 12, have been set for the workshop for the leaders who attended the preliminary meeting.

Any Home Demonstration Club member or non-club member wishing to participate in a lampshade workshop may get this training when the leaders conduct the workshops in their own club and community.

Those attending the Tuesday session were Mmes. Landon Loper, C. A. Baucum, J. L. Mason, L. A. Plank, Jack Fuqua, Joe Carlton and J. A. Walker.

Pied Pipers Doped to Take District 6-AA Track Honors

Several Records Expected to Fall As Athletes Vie

Track and field athletes from Hamlin High School and Stamford High School are destined to stage a free-for-all contest Saturday for top honors at the annual District 6-AA track and field meet at McMurry College in Abilene, with Hamlin probably holding the nod of dopesters over the Bulldogs.

Teams from Seymour, Haskell and Seymour also will participate in the five-way meet, but showings so far this season of their tracksters indicate they will not be serious contenders for top total points.

Preliminaries will get underway Saturday morning at 9:30, with finals scheduled to start at 1:30 in the various events.

Coach Jimmy Vaughan says his Pied Piper tracksters are in good shape for the meet. "Tobe Shields probably will not be used in distance events, he said, because of a pulled muscle sustained in last week-end's Brady Relays.

Vaughan said his boys will look good in the 100-yard and 440-yard dash events. Slated for spots on the 100-yarder are Larry Upshaw, Rayford Williams and Victor Criswell. Competing in the 440-yard dash will be David Bonds, Rayford Williams and Jimmy Cooper.

The Pipers should shatter the district record of 3:37.6 in the mile relay, inasmuch as the HHS foursome last week-end made a time of 3:35.1 in the Brady Relays.

Dwight Griggs is destined to set a new record in the high jump

Hamlin Youngsters Win Third in O'Brien Track Tournament

Tracksters of the eighth grade of Junior High School and freshmen and sophomores of Hamlin High School made a good showing last week-end as they participated in the O'Brien invitational track and field meet Saturday.

Weinert took top honors in the events that attracted representatives from 11 schools of the Haskell County area, by running up 76 2-5 points. Rochester was second with 73, and Hamlin was close behind with 72 2-5 for the third place in total points.

The three relay teams of the youngsters, from the eighth grade, freshmen and sophomores, each took top honors.

Pied Pipers Show Power and Take Second Place in Speedy Brady Relays

Giving further credence to the power of this year's track team of Hamlin High School, the Pied Pipers Saturday won second place in the spirited Class A division of the Brady Relays.

Interest Growing In Riding Club's Show Set April 9

Interest in the first rodeo events of the season, scheduled to open next Saturday when the Hamlin Riding Club stages its initial show, continues to mount. The event will feature jackpot roping and girls' barrel racing, and will begin at 2:00 p. m. at the Riding Club arena in North Hamlin.

As announced in last week's Hamlin Herald, bleachers to seat 75 people have been purchased, and were to arrive by April 1, but they were not on the ground at mid-week. Club officials hoped to have them erected by the time the April 9 shows opens. Calves for the show are due to arrive first of next week.

Erection is underway on individual lots on the west side of the arena for people who do not have facilities at home for their horses.

Automatic barrier puller for the roping events is being installed by Fred Dakky of Aspermont. This equipment will speed up the roping events.

Tickets for chances at an Anders Roper Hereford saddle, to be given away at 5:00 p. m. Saturday, April 9, are being sold by Riding Club members.

Dr. E. J. Hawkins is president of Hamlin Riding Club, and Elmo Joy Ferguson is secretary.

Choice B Plan of Allotment Program For Cotton Not as Popular as in 1959

Choice B plan of the cotton allotment program is not as popular among Jones County producers for 1960 as it was last year, according to tabulations made by the Jones County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee.

Several Cases of Bloat Reported in Section From Grain Grazing

Reports from cattlemen over Jones County reveal that several cases of bloat have shown up on cattle grazing lush green grain fields, according to Kirby Clayton, county agent.

Clayton says that in most cases bloat can be prevented by giving cattle free access to a mixture of 1,000,000 units of crystalline penicillin to one pound of granulated stock salt. The cow will consume about two-thirds pound of the mixture per month, which should prevent most bloat cases. Crude forms of penicillin should give equally good results and should be cheaper to feed. However, the cattleman should be sure that the cow gets enough of the mixture for a daily intake of 25,000 units of penicillin per day. For further information, contact your county agent.

A similar reaction to last year's experience with the system is being reflected all over the Cotton Belt, according to releases from Washington.

The Department of Agriculture reported last week that about 6.4 per cent of the nation's cotton farms have elected to grow cotton this year under the Choice B plan allowing plantings 40 per cent above federal allotments. This compares with about 7.2 per cent making a similar choice last year.

The 61,139 farms choosing the Choice B increased the 1960 allotments from 2,982,181 to 4,173,014 acres—an increase of 1,192,833 acres. This put the total allotment for this year's cotton crop at 17,502,843 acres.

Under the Choice B plan growers get price supports at 60 per cent of parity. Under the alternative plan—called Choice A—the growers abide by their original allotments and are eligible for supports at 75 per cent of parity.

Texas increased its allotments from 6,817,477 to 7,326,963 acres as 23,288 of its 201,565 farms elected Choice B.

STUDENTS ARRESTED—These two unidentified negro students were arrested as they tried to get service in the Fry-Hodge Drug counter in Marshall. The patrolman on the left is summoning a squad car to carry the couple away. There were several arrests made as students entered lunch counters around Marshall.

4-H Clubbers Go to District Council Meet Saturday at Quanah

Lester Dalton and Phylecia Roberts, Jones County 4-H Club members, represented 4-H Clubs of Jones County at the Extension District III 4-H Council held in Quanah last Saturday. Lester and Phylecia were elected district delegates from a group of Jones County 4-H Club Council delegates at a meeting held in the agent's office last December. They are members of the County 4-H Junior Leaders Club.

In Quanah the group voted to have the district 4-H Gold Star banquet at Abilene, worked out plans for the district junior leadership camp, and voted to purchase council pins for the district council members.

Accompanying the delegates to Quanah were County Agent Kirby Clayton and Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent.

Construction on Calvary Baptist Church Underway

Construction has begun on the new building for the Calvary Baptist Church, it has been announced by the building committee.

The church sold its property on South Central Avenue some time ago and at present the congregation is meeting at the Dovie community church, five miles east of town on the Stamford highway.

The church has voted to construct a new auditorium and educational building. The new building will be located on Northwest Avenue G. It will have 4,700 square feet of floor space and be of brick veneer construction.

New facilities of the Calvary Baptist Church are being financed through the Broadway plan, which has been used extensively for church finance throughout the country. In the past 20 years thousands of churches of many denominations in 36 states, Canada and Alaska have financed their building programs through the Broadway plan. There has never been a default. Fundamentally, the Broadway plan is a simple variation of municipal finance in which the church sells six per cent interest bearing bonds to its members and friends of the church. The sale of bonds for the Calvary church has begun, declares Rev. Royce Campbell, the pastor.

Organization for selling the bonds calls for five committees. Frank Law is chairman of this group. Team leaders are Mmes. Ed Johnson, L. B. Bruner Jr., Archie Carson, Roy Bruner and Messrs. L. B. Bruner Jr., Bill Thompson, Clarence Butler and Henry Downey.

Two Worship Hours Planned for Easter at First Baptist Church

Two worship services have been scheduled at the First Baptist Church for Easter Sunday morning, according to the pastor, Rev. Lenard A. Hartley, in order to care for the crowds expected and to permit attendants to attend services and still fill out-of-town engagements for the day.

First service will be from 8:30 to 9:30, and the second from 10:55 to 12:00. The Sunday School hour will be held on regular schedule at 9:45.

Pastor Hartley announces that the church is in the midst of an attendance campaign at Sunday School for the three-month period of April, May and June. Special china plates bearing a picture of the present church plant and a brief history will be presented to members and visitors who attend 11 of the 13 Sundays in the quarter.

Gene Prewit, operator of the local agency, invites the public to visit Prewit Motors show rooms to inspect the dashing new addition to the cheaper car field.

TEXAS SIZE WORMS—These "worms" might not go so well on a fishing line. They are a pair of nearly six-foot-long live rattlesnakes brought in at Matador. Left is "Rattlesnake Bill" Slover, who has been crowned "World Champion Snake Hunter" four times at the Okeene, Oklahoma, snake roundup. Right is Edmond Jackson. Both men are from Matador. The two snakes were dubbed "among the largest ever caught in the Matador area." They weigh between eight and 10 pounds each as opposed to the average weight of from one to three pounds for a rattler.

Johnny Crowe Gets Ford Salesmanship Award at Dallas Meet

J. E. (Johnny) Crowe of Connally Ford Sales in Hamlin was presented Ford Motor Company's 300-500 Club award at a banquet in Dallas last Friday honoring high ranking Ford dealership car and truck salesmen of 1954 in the Dallas sales district.

W. J. Corbett, manager of the Ford Dallas sales district, said 300-500 Club membership awards are presented for excellent retail sales performance. He pointed out that the efforts of winning salesmen are of particular significance because they contributed to Ford's leadership over all other makes in sales last year.

Corbett added that the average 300-500 Club member sold the equivalent of 100 new cars and 70 used cars in qualifying for the national honors, and that club members in the aggregate sold more than $3,000,000,000 worth of automotive merchandise.

Senator Johnson Says Strength Seen In Youth of Land

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson said this week the white house conference on children and youth—by bringing together grass roots citizenry and the federal government—offers "an impressive demonstration of the strength of our land."

Johnson, in a radio broadcast recorded for his Texas constituents, said he was happy to see that persons from all parts of the nation were "thinking and planning to assure for our children opportunities in a better world than we know today."

He touched briefly on factors brought out at the conference discussions, including:

The rapidly increasing population of the nation.

The fact that 44 per cent of the children under 18 years of age now live in seven states—Texas, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and California.

Americans are working fewer hours at a higher rate of pay than ever before.

Meantime, he said, juvenile delinquency continues to increase. Class room and teacher shortages exist in many areas. City slums provide a breeding ground for juvenile crime, and public health and welfare services face serious manpower shortages.
